Representative Cody Horlacher Takes Oath of Office

Madison, WI—Representative Cody Horlacher (R-Mukwonago) officially begins his first term in the 102nd Wisconsin State Legislature today. Rep. Horlacher took the oath of office in the Assembly chambers on Monday afternoon. He is committed to representing the people of the 33rd Assembly District in Madison.

“The people of the 33rd are my primary focus,” said Rep. Horlacher, “I will work tirelessly to carry forward the needs of the people of not only my district but all Wisconsinites.”

Representative Horlacher is the Vice-Chair of the Assembly Judiciary Committee. He is also a member of the Education, Criminal Justice and Public Safety, Campaigns and Elections, Constitution and Ethics, and Interstate Affairs committees.

“I am ready to get to work here in the legislature,” said Rep. Horlacher. “I am looking forward to working with the various committees I will be serving on to help Wisconsin grow.”

Rep. Horlacher was joined at the inaugural ceremony by his mother, Patricia, and his father Keith.

Rep. Horlacher is one of 63 Assembly Republicans and 18 Freshmen legislators for 2015-2016 legislative session. It is the largest Republican Assembly majority since 1957.

The Representative’s office is located at 17 North at the Wisconsin State Capitol. He can be reached at 608-266-5715 or Rep.Horlacher@legis.wisconsin.gov.
